

Quality Policy

Foss' Quality Policy is to provide healthy and safe working conditions for its shoreside and operations activities, and to maintain a safe and pollution-free practice that complies with national and international regulations, relevant standards, and industry best management practices guidelines. Foss continually improves the management system by conducting periodic reviews of its documented safety, environmental and quality goals, objectives and targets.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "John D. Parrott".

John D. Parrott
President & CEO